Stoner's Crossing (Lone Star Legacy Book #2)

Synopsis

The Disclosure Shattered Their World, But the Trail to the Truth Led Back to - STONER'S CROSSING
Nineteen years ago, Deborah Stoner stood on the gallows of Stoner's Crossing, Texas, awaiting execution for the murder of her husband. Miraculously, she escaped - but now the past has caught up with her, and history threatens to repeat itself. And this time the stakes are higher. She could lose not only her life, but the love and respect of her daughter Carolyn as well. As the secrets of Deborah's past begin to unravel, Carolyn is thrust into the midst of a dilemma. Torn between love for her mother and the possibility of finding a place with a grandfather she never knew, Carolyn must call on all her courage to face the terrible truths that have been hidden for two decades. A Tale of Deception and Intrigue, Mystery and the Grace of God.

Customer Reviews

Pella has provided a story with characters that go to your soul. I felt anger, I become so involved with the story it really stunned me when it was a person I did not expect to be the culprit. excellent read and I am on to book 3.

This book is part of one of my favorite series. It is 385 pages of smaller-than-normal print, and yet I couldn't put this series down. It is very well-written and has a good mix of emotions flowing throughout the book. On a side note, I would recommend this series for an audience above 16 years of age. The main character is a woman who marries a stranger 'out west' around civil war times only to realize the man is very abusive and heartless. She finds her way to happiness and salvation, but it is a rough road and I would not recommend this book for the younger teen crowd. Overall I enjoyed it and will keep this set and will enjoy re-reading it through the years.

These are excellent stories and well worth the time to read all 3. Following the disasters that befell her in book one, she has pulled her life together, raised her children well, has gained the respect of people who have come to know her and love her. She now has a horse ranch and trains some of the best, but her past is beginning to resurface. We follow her and especially her daughter through some terrible and trying developments. Not to spoil anything for the reader, you will enjoy this book. Judith Pella is on my top 10 favorite author list and books like this keep her there. Enjoy!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I really enjoyed the first two books in the series. I love to read especially novels about the western times of cowboys, Indians and the lives of the pioneers and am looking forward to the next book

Lone Star Legacy Book#2 was as good as the first. It had it all; Mystery, bad guys and good guys and gals, and the Grace of God all thru the book. Ready now to read the next one!

Another great book by Judith Pella. From the very beginning I was drawn back in and couldn't wait to continue the story and see where it would lead.

I loved The book. It kept me reading and I hated to put it down. Judith Pella is a wonderful writer. I will definitely read more of her books.

I enjoyed reading the book with all its twists and turns. The way that each characters faith grew and their love for one another was interesting.
