REVIEWS: "An outstanding book by a Venetian expert & thoughtful storyteller. I was expecting the steamy mystery but was pleasantly surprised by the Venetian language & history lessons. The author really gets into it & we, the reader, are better off for the inclusion." "The characters are believable & we are drawn into each of their worlds (even the sinister ones!). Diana keeps you on your toes throughout the novel & leaves you wanting more." "The descriptive writing in the story is beautiful & allows you to create the scenes in your mind so even if you have never been to Venice you can imagine it with ease. The way in which the story develops keeps you intrigued & asking 'what will the next clue be?' "Diana Cachey demonstrates her love affair with the city by creating sensory appeal as well as sharing 'secrets' only the locals might know ... adding a 'tourist guide' flavor to the pages while weaving an interesting tale of woman who takes a job in the magical city, lured there by ghosts... The vivid descriptions wrapped around me like a warm blanket." "Having traveled to The Serene Republic many times, I can attest to this author's superb treatment of Venice, its culture and its people! I'm not really a ghost fan, but it's so interesting to watch Louisa navigate the subtleties of Venetian life, relationships and communication. Venetians love secrets because it makes gossip juicier and this book captures that sentiment perfectly. As I read I can smell the espresso brewing, feel the down- the-nose glares of the locals and sense the frustration and exhilaration of traversing this ever confusing city and the ever twisting clues left by the ghosts. Bravo to the author - I want more!!!!!" "As a long time fan of Venice this wonderful novel invokes the true spirit of Venice. Ms. Cachey has a finely tuned ear for the nuances of life in Venice. As I read it, I could see and hear the sounds of La Serenissima, enchanting me once again through and through. If you have never been to Venice this book is like a magic carpet ride that takes you there. She captures the unique allure and mystery of Venice most wonderfully. in addition it is well written and plotted. I hope Part Two appears soon so I can again be whisked away again to the Most Serene Republic". "I felt like I was in Venice while reading this book. I could imagine walking over the bridges, riding in a gondola and sipping espresso in a caf  . I enjoy a good ghost story and this one keeps you intrigued. I can also relate to Louisa having had a Matteo (though he wasn't from Venice) in my life as well. I was also intrigued with mystery man Massimo, is he real or of another world. I am looking forward to the second and third installments of this story. Anxious to see what happens next."

Diana Does it again! What a gem of a trilogy this was- certainly makes me want to go back to Venice- This one was the steamiest of the 3 and did not disappoint on the twists and turns through the campos to the bedrooms of venice and with such drool-worthy characters. So sad that it is over- Can't wait until this uber talented writer comes out with her next! XOXOXO Come back to Venice, we need more stories ;)

This part of the series has the most exciting and well-written romance scenes by far. I must admit that I went into this read with high expectations, as I thoroughly enjoyed the first two books in the series, but the author has gone way above and beyond what I was expecting and ended the trilogy with a bang. The ending also really caught me off guard â “ definitely a good finisher in regard to how hard it was to foresee while also tying up some earlier plot elements. Iâ™m definitely interested in seeing what other kinds of books the author is going to write about now (some more Venice themed stories, I hope?)
