Customer Reviews

Blyssful Lies is the second book in the Blyss Trilogy. I thought the first book Blyss was amazing but damn if this didn't top it 100%! This is a trilogy so there will be another book so as you may have already figured out it ends in a cliffy.. a huge disturbingly frightening cliffy! Even though I never give a cliffy a 5 star there was no way I was not given this a huge 5 stars! Even though some might find this story quite disturbing I freaking loved every minute of it so far.. I am really getting tired of the same old love story and this story so far is nothing ordinary it will keep you on your toes and having many WTF moments. The chemistry between these characters is off the charts and damn if J.C. Cliff hasn't found her way into being one of my authors. I don't want to give too much away because even the littlest of hints or teasers will give the story line away, but I am hoping ones that are reading this review have already read the first book. This story continues the journey and captivity of Julianna and her captors Nick and Travis. You will get more insight into the mind of Nick which in a way I started to like him but that was all thrown to bits after the first few chapters... but damn he sounds like one sexy specimen. Travis is a whole other ballgame and in the first book I really connected with him and hoped for him to turn into the hero of sorts but as you all know that didn't happen in Blyss... but will it happen in Blyssful Lies??? This book will seriously test your patience and your mind because the mind blowing things that happen will leave you spinning. Will Julianna finally be free or will more lies and deceit build that she will have no clue who to trust anymore? You have to pick up these first 2 books ASAP!
