Customer Reviews

ok, yes, this story might not be for you if you want a traditional romance. It's kinda like a shifter story on an acid trip. But if you like the first in the series, this installment ups the ante. Piles on more hot scenes with more weird characters - elf girls and goblins, and we meet (oh god yes) more, stronger, dominant members of the unicorn herd. I wasn't sure about this series at first, but ultimately what I like most is that Serena is a real character, and she is strong, not the typical blank heroine of this genre. And the wild intimate scenes are hot even when they shock me. Also, I enjoy how the writing is not too dumbed down. Like, the sentences can have more than four words in them. It's an interesting world and I want to find out what happens even without all the crazy sex. I'm giving it five stars for not boring me.

A continuation of an excellent story by Cecelia Chase. I would like to see more of this author writing similar genre. I don't like good erotic stories leading up to a hot encounter, and then the monster/dragon/ghost/goblin changes into a man. Come on authors, follow Cecelia's lead. This was one great erotic story.

Not nearly as good as the first one. I got bored with it fairly early on.

Read the first, bad. And then read the second. Why?
