5 "æ"ve got this " stars!! Reading a Jill Shalvis book is like eating a whole pan of brownies without the calorie guilt! you get all the good feelings with no negative effects to your thighs!!! I have never met a Jill Shalvis book I didn't like. I don't think I ever will! Her characters are chopped full of real life quirks. You never know what kind of situations her heroes or heroines will get into. Zoe has this constant saying throughout the book and it's "I got this". She has had to be everyone's everything for so long, now that her siblings are finally on track she starts to do things for herself. First off she wants to find a man so of course the book starts off with Zoe going on a blind date with a dentist. She decides to be daring and bold and kiss the dentist after she opens the door. However it's not the dentist she kisses it's her brother's best friend Parker. She has never met Parker before this moment but Wyatt talked her into letting him stay with her while he's in town. Of course this tension between them is broken by her dog Oreo (whom I loved). Oreo doesn't like men however when Parker shows up he climbs all over him. You should always take hints from your pets about people, they are good judges of character. Not only does Zoe have to live with the incredibly attractive Parker while he's on "vacation" she is technically working with him by flying him over some interesting areas in Idaho. She is fighting her attraction for him. Zoe keeps repeating to herself that he isn't staying but of course her heart doesn't want to believe it. I mean seriously how is she supposed to resist a man who kisses and rescues kittens for goodness sakes. I really enjoyed Jill Shalvis throwing in the beginning with Oreo about how he rolls in bear poop.

Once again Jill brings us back to Sunshine Idaho. A simple place but complicated one for the Stone siblings. Due to their parents inability to be bothered with raising them, they were raised by their grandparents and grew to love this town Wyatt and Darcy found their HEA which left Zoe. Zoe was always the caretaker when they were on their adventures with their parents (because they couldn't be bothered) she was the one that made sure everything was done and correct. She went off while her grandparents helped with Wyatt and Darcy and got her pilots license traveled a little but ended up back in Sunshine. She took care of everything when her grandparents passed away since her parents couldn't be bothered coming or taking care of anything. Once Wyatt and Darcy found the HEA she was all alone in their grandparents house. Too proud and strong to ask for help she was determined to fix everything on her own. She felt she owed it to her siblings because she lost their money when she was scammed by someone that she thought loved her. Hence the walls around her heart. Growing tired of being alone she agrees to try some blind dates at the urging of Darcy. Wyatt's friend Parker is coming to town for some vacation/recovery and is going to be staying with Zoe. Zoe did this as a favor for Wyatt because he had no room in his house. Parker arrives and Zoe thinks it is her blind date and she listens to Darcy and gives him a kiss to say hello only to find out that Parker is Wyatt's friend and NOT her blind date. She was stood up by her blind date. Their is instant chemistry between Parker and Zoe. Also chemistry with Zoe's lumpy dog Oreo who does not like men takes right to him. Chemistry that they both try and ignore because Zoe is looking for HEA with the white fence and the 2.

I started All I Want at 5:30 this morning, with hubby sleeping peacefully beside me. It's my quiet reading time before I start the day...well it's normally quiet. The beginning was funny and I was struggling to keep my giggles quiet, which then turned into snorts, which then turned into hiccups. So my quiet reading time didn't end up so quiet after all. At least I started my day with a big smile on my face. Zoe meets Parker when she practically throws herself at him. Zoe is a pilot struggling to refurb the old family home, pay off her study debts and give herself a life. Up till now her brother and sister were her main focus, but with them moving out and finding their own HEA's, Zoe realises she needs to make some changes. First change, she wants to go on dates. Timing is everything and Parker realises it when a beautiful woman throws herself at him. Wyatt, Zoe's brother and Parker's mate has teed up for him to stay with her while he's on a break from work. Work is his life, but Zoe would make a great distraction. Parker has been forced to take time off work when one of his cases goes bad and a fellow officer is killed. His work involves chasing down poachers and traffickers of wild and nearly extinct animals. He finds it too hard to completely shut off from work. These two have great chemistry that they try to deny. Parker doesn't want to hurt Zoe, but knows a relationship won't work because of his job. Zoe is hesitant, because she's had bad relationships because of lies and she knows Parker has secrets. Eventually they succumb...and they are HOT together. Both Zoe and Parker have some family issues. I do not like Zoe's parents at all. Parker's family issues show us a side to Parker that was very sweet.
