What She Feels

Synopsis

This is not just another poetry book filled with cliché quotes. What this is is every emotion a woman has ever felt when dealing with love, but could never put into words. This is looking at yourself in the mirror. This is finally being able to look at your situation from the outside looking in. This is a look into the too often scarred hearts of our women. This is inspiration. This is hope.

This book spoke to my soul. I went through and highlighted ones that spoke to my current situation and starred the ones that I've went through before. Makes me do a lot of thinking about what I want in the next man. And what I expect of him.

Fantastic book! It is very empowering right from the start! Not only does the author put many things into perspective, he also sees different aspects of situations. Definitely recommend it to anyone that needs help overcoming a breakup/heartache or to anyone that may need to see how their actions affected someone in their life and made them feel. Buy it! You won't regret it!
