Kill Them (Ben Hood Thrillers Book 21)

Synopsis

Swimsuit models gather at a resort in Broome, Western Australia. A young Aboriginal girl is brutally raped in sand dunes close by. Ben Hood is hired to offer protection to the swimsuit crew. Islamic State fanatics decide to launch a deadly attack on the models. A secret government squad is dispatched to neutralise the I.S. plot. There is obviously going to be a deadly collision course with Ben right in the middle.

Another good one from Lindsay. Spoiler alert for those who don't want to actually know what the book is about. This one starts with the rape and mutilation of a young Aboriginal girl. A girl the local police question about what happened. They are looking for info on the men responsible. The men responsible belong to a group of jihadists who want to kill and maim for IS. These bozo's can't get to Syria so they decide they will kill in Australia. The target they are shooting for is a group of women competing for swimsuit title at a resort hotel. The women are beautiful and bikini clad on the beach. The run-up to the contest has been well publicized and the jihadists are hoping to kill them all and make a name for themselves with IS. Ben Hood, Claudia and Suan have been sent by Rod of VIP to be security for this event. Hood himself has been specially requested for this as his friend Milba

Berry, a world famous Aboriginal actress, is in Broome to see Lois, the woman who was raped. She and Ben have been friends for years and Milba made the request for Hood to come to Broome. She knows he's the guy who can figure out what's going on. There is also a shadowy guy named Curtin who appears to be in charge of the Govt response to bits and pieces of intel that's been gathered about the jihadists and the event. Curtin doesn't want the local police involved at all and is doing his best to make sure they are kept in the dark. So begins another great Ben Hood read. This one has Ben, Milba, Claudia, Susan, Curtin and his men, the jihadists, rape, murder, kidnapping, a contestant named Nikki who has baggage, a Nikki who lands in Hood's bed, a Nikki who Ben has feelings for, Ben's friend and mentor Akira who's hell on wheels when it comes to killing, boats, fire, destruction and Ben Hood in the middle of another kick ass Ben Hood read. Five Stars again.

Drew just keeps getting better with each Ben Hood adventure. The release was delayed because of some personal issues, but was well worth the wait and Drew and Narelle are to be commended for working through their problems in order to deliver another great tale. And #22 is on the way. The story line is ripped right out of today's headlines and Ben, as usual, gets right to the heart of the problem and solves it his way, fast and with no quarter asked or given. He does have a little help, but the action is all geared around Ben and his no nonsense approach to injustice. Thanks to both the Lindsays for a great read.

This latest Ben Hood thriller has it all and is on fire from start to finish. I read the whole thing in one eager sitting and couldn't believe it when I was done. Ranks as one of the best in a great series. Great characters, fast action and message I can get behind, this is what I have been waiting for. Now, I can hardly stand to wait for the next one as Drew Lindsay has raised the bar. Read it.

This is one of Lindsay's best efforts. This time Ben Hood is involved with Islamic Terrorists. If you are a Terrorist it is really better not to involve Ben Hood. This particular group wanted to publicly execute him. Ben Hood knows exactly what to do with Terrorists. Kill Them.

I have read them all, and this one is just as entertaining as all the others. Drew Lindsay is one of my favorite authors, and I highly recommend all his Ben Hood books. Nanny 1
