Celtic Ties (The Lizzy O'Malley Mysteries Book 2)

Synopsis

Aunt Thelma's last request dispatches Lizzy O'Malley to Ireland to track down a family legacy. A mysterious stranger plants an antique rosary on her, and she finds herself tangled up in the age-old troubles between Catholics and Protestants. Unsure on which side of the conflict her heritage places her, Lizzy must again dodge bullets, explosions, and speeding cars to survive.

Customer Reviews

Caught in a web of political deceit, Lizzy takes us on a romp through urban Ireland as well as through vivid countrysides and psychic connections. This is a great romp to the Emerald Isle and back to Portland, OR. Great food descriptions and funny, unfiltered Lizzy comments make for an enjoyable read.

I expected Lizzy O'Malley to have another exciting adventure that likely would get her in trouble. This time, trouble finds her in Ireland, and involves "the Troubles" of the historic Irish conflict. A fun, fast-paced read that paints pictures of Ireland and Lizzy's home in Oregon, and gives us another chance to enjoy Lizzy's independent, sassy outlook on life. She debuted as a pistol in Medicine

Wheel, and maintains her fierce determination in Celtic Ties. Enjoy!

Irish ancestry drew me in and my search into the spiritual held me until the end of the nicely written tale.
