Synopsis

Tammie and Mike are married with three children. Lately, Mike has been showing all the signs of a cheater. That is until he sweeps her off her feet with a romantic night that seems to put all her doubts and thoughts of infidelity to sleep. All of her worries are washed away with every touch, kiss, and stroke. As luck would have it, evidence of Mike's infidelity smacks her in the face and it is a hard dose of reality as she realizes who the woman is that has captured his attention. After cheating on Tammie off and on for years, Mike has finally met his match. His newest side chick has fallen in love with him and she just won't let go. ## Customer Reviews

Somebody Else's Husband • may have been the first book of Authoress Patti Doss that I have read, but it is not the last. I was looking for different authors that I had not read any of their work before when I came across this book. I read this book within 3-4 hours. The pace of the storyline was perfect for me: not too fast and not too slow. I prefer stories that give just enough back story that flows with the main story and not overdo it with pages of back story to fill up space that draws the story out more than it has to be. There were a few grammatical/ spelling/ mixing up of characters names in places. But, it was not overly done, so it was not a distraction from the book, which is something else I truly appreciate. Michael/Mike (Mr. Faultless): He is not faultless, but he tries to act like he is in many ways. There are plenty of "Mikes" in the real world that don't want to take responsibility for their actions or contributions to certain situations. Although, I disliked him I couldn't completely write him off based on him stepping up in other areas. Only thing is how long is that going to last? Will he be able to handle the consequences of the actions he made? Rachel (Ms. Craving): She craved attention, love, affection, etc. Like many women do yet for the wrong reasons and from the wrong person. Despite having a tragic past that no one should ever endure when the pain is not dealt with you act out in the most desperate ways. Usually, it results in ignoring the consequences of such actions in an attempt to "secure" the agony. I got a feeling that this was not the first time she acted this way or being in a similar situation but never thought it would result in true isolation from loyal individuals by her deeds. The question now is she going to let the situation go?
