Story opens with Ladonna Sterling/Caprice Tatum/Wicket, when she is touched by a man in a club trying in his mind, have a "good time" and his "way" with Ladonna, has a panic attack that brings up the past she has tried to handle but flares up anytime she doesn't feel safe or in control. Ladonna has led a very complicated life having suffered extreme abuse at the hand of her mother and another catastrophic event that leaves her scarred emotionally. Since then, in her current situation as a superstar which has brought her fame and fortune, emotionally she has a long way to go. Two people enter her life who bring some peace as much as you can when someone has been abused, but the scars of the past on her soul are embedded forever. One of these people is Hannah, who helps her to leave Atlanta and stays by her side as her nanny/friend and the other, is Richard Sterling, a billionaire who is her father. When her father learns she has returned to Atlanta he tells her to call Dr. Marcella Spencer to talk things through because he knows her past and only wants the best for her and is worried about what she might do. I would be remiss not to talk about the sexy side of the book because you know with Zane MOST likely there is that, and she doesn't disappoint. KAD also was known as Kagiso, Antonio and Diederik the bodyguards are there to serve and protect 24/7 and that they do. She also has two freaky folks who are at her beck and call, and there is a great twist involving them I didn't see coming (literally). When Nikki her "right-hand chick" sets her up with an interview, Jonovan Davis the CEO/Publisher of G-Clef magazine.
