From Italy With Love: Such A Summery Escape You Won't Need A Holiday!

Synopsis

'This epic road-trip is full of glamour, romance and sizzling sexual tension, but at its heart is a truly heart-warming tale of self discovery â youâll not want to miss a moment of it.' â Chick Lit
LoveHome-loving Laurie thinks sheâs happy â she has a safe, reliable boyfriend and working in her local library is what she thought she always wanted. That is until she inherits a vintage Ferrari from her eccentric Uncle Miles and the conditions of the inheritance are far from simple. To keep the car Laurie will have to drive across Europe with the gorgeous but unreliable Cameron Matthews as her guideâ and Camâs motives for helping are not all that altruistic. Cam isnât particularly thrilled about escorting his late pal Milesâ dull mouse of a niece on this wild goose chase but all he has to do is get Laurie safely to Italy and heâs sure the Ferrari is his. But Uncle Miles had a few tricks up his sleeve and the route heâs planned takes Cam and Laurie on a road trip theyâll never forget. From sampling the delights of the Loire Valley to the breathtaking beauty of Lake Garda, this is one journey that has more twists and turns than either of them could ever have imaginedâ |

Customer Reviews

Laurie is a caterpillar making her way through life. She thinks sheâs happy living with her boyfriend Robert and working at the library. She has everything in control and then her Uncle Miles dies. At the funeral, per Miles's instruction, everyone is dressed in colorful clothing and having a great time. Laurie feels out of place and alone (even with Robert next to her). At the reading of the will, she discovers she has inherited the ultra-rare Ferrari worth millions. What am I supposed to do with that, she wonders. It's not like she can afford the insurance. Ahh, but there's a catch. Uncle Miles has it arranged that he wants his beloved niece to go on a road-trip in the Ferrari across England, into France and end up at the Ferrari Museum in Italy. Just to make sure she's safe, Uncle Miles insists on Cameron Matthews (who knows cars inside and out) to accompany her. Thus starts the journey and like a scared jackrabbit, Laurie is timid and shy around Cam. They appear to be opposites but along the journey, Laurie emerges from her cocoon. Both Cam and Laurie are shocked by the attraction they feel and try to deny themselves. Laurie discovers that life is more exciting than she imagined and with every obstacle, she emerges stronger. But when she has to choose between her old life and new life, which one will she choose? Take a look at that gorgeous cover. It's one of the reasons why I chose to review this book. It's eye-catching and I can picture myself behind the wheel of that gorgeous Ferrari. I absolutely LOVED this book! I loved the writing (very British) and the characters are well-developed. I loved the sexual tension between Cam and Laurie. I loved how she transformed before my eyes.
