Customer Reviews

Taint is so emotionally charged and twisted that after the first read, I had to immediately read this story again to be sure what I thought I read really happened!Taint resumes beautifully where Snap

(book 1) ended. The characters have evolved a great deal in this story. The drama escalated from five to a thousand on page 1. What happened to Phil? Will he get away with the beating he gave Hazel? The four horsemen, Hazel, Bobby, Erick, Cady's friendship is tested in ways they couldn't have imagined. Will their friendship survive the biggest test of all? The emotional upheaval will gut you. The drug Snap is the root of all evil in Taint. Phil is a walking time bomb in his desire to monopolize the market. Cash is floundering all over the place attempting to do the right thing. Hazel is in a haze (literally) thanks to Cash and Phil. Bobby is the glue holding the entire crew together. No pressure, right? Bobby will do things in this installment no friend should have to do. Ever. Who in the haystacks gave Dale the green light to be the boss? I'm not sure how I feel about his infiltration of the four horsemen yet. Are you expecting an HEA of any sort in this installment? Don't. Are you expecting feel good, happy, and syrupy bonding among the four horsemen? Don't. If you're expecting raw, gritty, and real emotions, issues, and tests of friendship, then jack friggin' pot! This installment is definitely a Jack Daniels read! The cliffhanger warrants at least three shots of booze alone! Talk about wild and crazy drama! It's like watching a tornado reek havoc in slow motion....the highest adrenaline rush times a million! Five gazillion stars for this phenomenal read!

Writing: â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦Story: â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦Characters: â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦â€¦Overall rating: 5.0*I was given this book as an ARC in exchange for an honest review*This book picks up where Cash, Hazel, Phil, Cady, and Erick left off in Snap. And Author, Tara Dawn, wastes no time getting right to it!"Phil doesn't deserve a quick death. He deserves what he's done to everyone else and more."Hazel ends up back in the clutches of Phil.. and one thing about Phil, he lives up to his reputation of being over the top batshit crazy! His form of "love" is some of the most screwed up I've seen. He's not happy unless he is bringing Hazel to the brink of death. He wants to break her body as well as her mind, to completely control her. But, most of all, he wants to keep her away from Cash.Cash will do anything to get her back. Whatever it takes. I love this character, He's strong, alpha, and isn't afraid to show a little vulnerability. He and Hazel are soul mates that keep getting ripped apart by the most tragic of circumstances.Cash has told Hazel the worst thing about himself, and even though she's angry, she can't deny that she loves, and craves, him. There are a lot of characters in this series to keep up with. But each are well placed and have a purpose in the story. I haven't found a single one that made me think, "Hmmm, what's the point?" It's like a finely choreographed chess game with all the pieces moving in sync for a common goal. To get Cash and Hazel back to each other, where they belong.Taint, like Snap, is dark. I love dark. I crave dark. And Author, Tara Dawn, feeds my craving. She took me, as a reader, right into the book.
