Customer Reviews

if you like alien love stories this is a good book to read. It has twist and turns, love and hate, and laughs. Also family secrets and good steamy love scenes. I couldn't put it down until I was finished!

What an excellent story. I loved it. We get to see racism in a different way but the story is still the same. It still exist in our society have all these decades. But love conquers all. I loved that he had the power of dream.

At the heart of the book, and why I kept reading, was a classic conflict: star-crossed lovers. However, I think the author may have watched the now-cancelled show, Star-Crossed, and lifted it poorly for this story. The grammar was atrocious. I don't believe she knew how to use a comma. Additionally, the spelling was incorrect (e.g. "barley there panties"). It read like the poorly written fanfiction of a thirteen year-old in study hall. Oh! And she changed from first person to third person within the same paragraph. This woman is a full-time author?! Re-read before you press publish- for goodness sake.

I liked it. I think it could have used a little more content at the end, overall, I thought it was a decent series.

i love all her stories
